Thankfully this week we are all finished isolating in the Carter house and both girls were back at school on Friday. They were so happy to be allowed out again and even got up extra early today for tennis practice! Only one week left of the school term so we are busy catching up on the bits and bobs before we finish. It's strange not to have the usual flurry of school Christmas concerts and activities etc. but we are managing to keep busy and wondering how we fit everything in, in previous years! This coming week we shall be attempting to make mince pies....not as easy as it sounds with gluten free pastry but will give it a go (there's always the supermarket as a backup if we don't quite succeed!).

Thanks to those of you who have been in touch, as always we love reading your messages we are sending best wishes to you all and looking forward to seeing you soon Stay safe and well

Love from
Sarah and the family xxxx
