

Dear friends

I hope you are all keeping as safe and well as possible. Once again, our worship will be at home only today. The service was filmed this time at the Church of the Resurrection at Hurley. Many thanks to Ruth, Jenny and Nick for sharing in that.

A Service for the Third Sunday of Advent

A Service for the Third Sunday of Advent (13 December 2020) from the Kingsbury and Baxterley group of Parishes, filmed at the Church of the Resurrection, Hur...

Next Sunday we will be resuming services in the building, with a communion service at Merevale at 11am and an evening service at 4.30pm at Baxterley. There will then be Christmas communion services, for which the details are on the newsletter attached. I am sorry that the restrictions on numbers allowed in church and on singing indoors means that we cannot have our usual Crib and Carol services, but it would just not be possible to do those safely, legally and well. However, I am looking forward to us circulating a video service of lessons and carols. For those coming to services in the buildings over Christmas week and beyond, I must urge everyone to be careful to keep to all the guidelines, of which perhaps the hardest is resisting the temptation to stop and chat with friends from outside our bubble (or bauble!). We will also need to give a miss to things like leaving Christmas cards for people at the back of church; as you'll see from the notice sheet, we're suggesting that, if you've not already written your cards, you may like to give a donation (to the church or another charity) in lieu.

With my prayers and best wishes

John
