This week we have been busy making our own wrapping paper ready for Christmas gifts....lots of fun potato printing which we haven't done for years! The girls are still busy with school with Phoebe taking a turn home schooling next week so her year group can have a covid reset and deep clean of her bit of the school.

Thinking ahead, and whatever the restrictions over the coming weeks, I would like to gather your favourite Christmas Carols, Hymns and Songs so that we can share either on here, sing together in some format or both. Please can you send me your favourite choices to me and I will try to include as many as possible.

For now we are thinking of you all as we move to another set of lockdown rules in our new tiers.....looking forward to being able to see you all again soon but for now stay safe and well and keep singing

Love Sarah, Tom, Emily and Phoebe
