

Dear friends

Just a quick message with the link to our video Carol Service. Many thanks to those who sang at Merevale, to those who read in each of the churches (especially those gracious enough to re-record their readings because the vicar hadn't worked his camera properly first time round!). A particular thank you to Sarah for arranging the choir items and playing the organ. I hope you will all enjoy singing along at home.

Christmas Carol Service 2020

A Christmas service of readings and carols filmed in the five churches of the Kingsbury and Baxterley Group.

I look forward to seeing some of you at our Christmas communion services over the next few days, but must reiterate the message that Archbishop Justin has been giving, that whilst churches are open, nobody should feel under pressure to attend if they do not feel it safe to do so. No booking is needed for those who wish to come, but numbers allowed in church are limited; it is likely that we will have most space at the service at Kingsbury on Christmas morning, if you are undecided where to attend.

Last, but not least, let me wish you all a happy and holy Christmas.

Every blessing

John
