

Dear friends

Once again, I am emailing with a link to our online worship, which this week was filmed largely in the Church of Our Lady, Merevale. There are also services in church today, at Hurley at 9.30am and Merevale at 11am. Other forthcoming services are listed on the attached newsletter. In addition to our regular services, there will be Holy Communion service this Thursday evening at 7.30pm at Hurley for Ascension Day.

Worship for the Sixth Sunday of Easter

A Service for the Sixth Sunday of Easter (Rogation Sunday) from the Kingsbury and Baxterley Group of Parishes.

The newsletter also includes dates of meetings of Parochial Church Councils and the Annual Parochial Church Meetings for the three parishes. As part of the preparation for the annual meetings, there will be the usual revision of the church electoral roll (not to be confused with the civic electoral registers). For those who are on the electoral roll and wish to stay on, you don't need to do anything. If you are not on, but are either resident in the parish or are a regular worshipper, then you can apply to be on; application forms are available in the churches, but I am also attaching a digital copy here, which can be returned by email to me. The revision of the electoral rolls needs to be completed by the end of May. Let me know if you have any questions about that (or anything else).

With my continuing prayers and best wishes

John

This week we have had friends for garden drinks after work for the first time and it was lovely to catch up, if a little cold, especially as it had hailed earlier in the day! I have also had 2 work meetings in person rather than online which was very strange although again cold as we were outside on a Country Park ha! Tentative and careful steps back towards "normality" for me. Tom of course continues to work at the hospital and the girls have settled in very well back at school after the bank holiday. It's very strange to think they only have a matter of weeks left before another half term and then it will be the final few weeks of the school year!

Rain couldn't stop play today for Emily as she continued tennis training over at Nottingham Trent and Phoebe was very happy to stay indoors and make semaphore flags as part of a guides badge - next step to actually learn how to do it!

Hope you are all doing ok. Look forward to seeing you soon

Love Sarah and the family xxxx
