Am very much looking forward to Harvest celebrations this coming week. I will be at Merevale tomorrow so any choir members who will be there please come and find me a bit before the service as we have a short piece to practice for during communion, i also have some other music for during the service where we are hoping to sing the hymns. (I'll be at Kingsbury the following week and will do the same).

For those still staying safe at home I send you lots of love and hope you are doing ok.

This week in the Carter house we are mainly painting!!! Tom and I painting the stairs and landing (lots of glossing to be done on banisters!), Emily is painting 'online' using a mindfulness app and Phoebe has begun a huge painting in acrylics on double A0 paper of a large white cat taking over the world (Can't think where she got the inspiration from but Thomas our large white Tomcat is sat right next to me as I type!!!)

Hoping to see you all soon,
lots of love
Sarah, Tom, Emily and Phoebe xxxx
