

Dear friends

Today marks the end of our week of Harvest celebrations in the Kingsbury and Baxterley Group. Many thanks to those of you who have already contributed to our collections of food/money for the foodbanks, and to those who will be bring offerings today. If you have not been able to bring goods to church and you would like to make an offering, let me know and I am more than happy to come to your home and collect - socially distanced of course!

Our Harvest services today are at Hurley at 9.30am and at Kingsbury at 11am. The video service for this Sunday, with Revd Carole's reflection is here:

Please stay safe everyone: although our local area has not yet been hit as hard as some, it is clear that infection rates are going up. If there are any changes to the services that we have planned that become required by any further lockdowns or guidance I will let you know.

With prayers and best wishes

John
