The Carter house has been very busy this week with the girls getting all their school work done ready for a half term break, having a lovely

Zoom meeting with some of you, and finishing my work off as Tom and I have a long weekend too!! We have done more work in the garden and, most excitingly, on Thursday evening, an unexpected knock at the door was a delivery from the RSPCA of a new pet for the household!!! A lovely cat called Thomas who has come to have a new home with us after his old family could no longer keep him. As you can imagine the girls are thrilled and we are all loving getting to know each other.

We hope you are managing to stay occupied and well

Sending lots of love and best wishes to you all as always,
From Sarah and the family xxxx
