We have been thinking of everyone this week as we adapt to yet another 'new normal' and hoping you are all getting along ok too . The girls are still doing school from home but adjusting to new timetables now as it is becoming clear they will be here for several weeks still to come. Luckily I am still able to work flexibly from home so can be with them for which i am very thankful and feel very lucky. Tom continues to work at the hospital and as always is helping us as well.

Thomas the cat is settling in very well and proving to be excellent company for us all too

We are still enjoying the garden and hoping to pick the first strawberries next week!!!! Hope its sunny so we can enjoy them outside!

Lots of love to you all, as always its good to hear from so many of you, and we send you very best wishes for another good week.
Love From Sarah and the family xxx
