Thank you to everyone for getting in touch last week, it was lovely to hear from you, sorry i haven't had chance to reply to you all yet. I can however confirm that we have been camping in the back garden, completed lots of Easter crafts, decorated eggs, tried out origami and are planning to make hot cross buns tomorrow

I'll be back in touch with some Easter Sunday Hymns to sing along to and a couple of Hallelujah too if I can find them!!

Stay safe and well all
As always lots of love
