Thank you for all your messages this week, we always love to hear from you and send apologies if we haven't yet replied. We have had a good week helping our new cat Thomas to settle in - he has already claimed the best spot on the sofa whenever we are not looking and is (even now) "helping" us with our various things at the computer by sitting right in front of the screen on the keyboard!

The girls have enjoyed the sunshine in the paddling pool over the half term week and we are getting ready to once again start home school from Monday

Sending lots of love to everyone, stay safe and well, and keep singing till we can sing together again.

Love Sarah, Tom, Emily and Phoebe (and Thomas the cat!) xxxx
