This week I hope you don't mind me sending the following.....

For many years my dad stood in Atherstone selling poppies for his branch of the British Legion. This year, understandably, he was unable to do this due to shielding and COVID restrictions. Although we are unable to sell poppies for him my friend Tereza (whose husband is an army veteran) and I will be running a socially distanced 10km around Hinckley tomorrow in a poppy appeal virtual race to raise funds instead. If you have been unable to buy a poppy or give through usual means and feel you would like to donate then I have put our official link to the RBL just giving page below. Please don't feel any obligation, just sharing around

I hope you are managing with lockdown 2 OK and that you can enjoy some singing this week. Hoping and looking forward to seeing you all soon.

Many thanks
Sarah and family xxxx
