

Good morning everyone

Our worship in church today will be at Kingsbury at 11am, but for those who are not able to be there the link to the video worship and reflection is below. I am delighted that the reflection is given by Ruth Taylor, and I am sure we will all be very pleased to hear her preaching once again.

Next Sunday is the 5th Sunday of the month, and so not part of the set pattern of worship. There will be an 11am Holy Communion service at Kingsbury, but as ever open to those from across our churches and communities. This coming week there will also be midweek communion services, at Wood End on Wednesday (9.30am) and at Hurley on Thursday (11am). I'm attaching the week's newsletter - there will also be printed copies available in church.

We shall be continuing the video worship, which is posted each week on the parish facebook page and website, and also the Dial-a-Sermon line. If people still find it useful to be receiving a weekly email with those links, I am happy to keep sending them out. Let me know your thoughts on that.

With prayers and best wishes

John

Worship for the Eleventh Sunday after Trinity

Collect

God of glory,
the end of our searching,
help us to lay aside
all that prevents us from seeking your kingdom, and to give all that we have to gain the pearl beyond all price,
through our Saviour Jesus Christ.

Amen.

First Reading: Romans 12.1-8

Gospel Reading: Matthew 15.21-28

Reflection - Ruth

Affirmation of faith

Let us affirm our faith in Jesus Christ the Son of God.

Though he was divine,
he did not cling to equality with God,
but made himself nothing.
Taking the form of a slave,
he was born in human likeness.
He humbled himself
and was obedient to death,
even the death of the cross.
Therefore God has raised him on high,
and given him the name above every name:
that at the name of Jesus
every knee should bow,
and every voice proclaim that Jesus Christ is Lord,
to the glory of God the Father.

Amen.

Prayers of intercession

Blessing and Dismissal

The love of the Lord Jesus
draw you to himself,
the power of the Lord Jesus
strengthen you in his service,
the joy of the Lord Jesus fill your hearts;
and the blessing of God almighty,
the Father, the Son and the holy Spirit be among you and remain with you always.

Amen.
