

Hello again everyone! I hope you are all doing ok?

Please find below this weeks' selection of Hymns for Corpus Christi and Sunday and also a link to the RSCM BIG Music Sunday event which is happening via their youtube channel at 6.00pm Tomorrow. I took the liberty of signing our choir up and accessing the music (attached to this message - sorry about the large file) so you are all able to join in if you should wish too. All of the info is at the link below but if you are around the session introduced By John Rutter looks to be very good My apologies I didn't get chance to circulate this earlier I have only just found it myself!

- Will you come and follow me
- <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=liUxlaCRT0>

For music Sunday an anthem set is 'how can i keep from singing' i thought this version recorded online during lockdown in New York a few weeks ago at the height of the pandemic there was rather poignant yet uplifting too. - <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=VLPP3XmYxXg>

So many hymns and songs to choose from I could go on all night....however the message KEEP SINGING ITS SUNDAY! is incredibly relevant this week so I hope you manage to find time to do some singing and that it brings some time of joy, reflection and a sense of wellbeing.

We will be singing along here in Hinckley as well as the usual mix of school work and activities at home...this week we can report we have started a diamond art picture, made red velvet cake and harvested and eaten our first mange tout peas and strawberries...all the more tasty for having grown them ourselves Thanks as always to those who got in touch, we love to hear from you.

Lots of love to you all, we are thinking of you and sending prayers and good wishes.

from Sarah, Tom, Emily and Phoebe. xxxx

PS I came across this video clip whilst looking for Hymns this week (I have used this church for hymns before) - a light hearted look at post lockdown church services something for wardens and PCC to consider hee hee hee! (no offence intended)
