

Dear friends

I hope you are well on this beautiful morning. I am looking forward to being at Merevale for a Communion service at 11am and at Baxterley at 4.30pm for Evening Prayer, and to seeing some of you at one of those services. We are continuing on our gradual and careful return to worshipping in the church buildings. Thank you to everybody for your help in enabling that to happen in as safe and normal a way as possible. For some it will still be too early to be coming to church in that way, and I hope nobody feels under any pressure to do so. We will continue to have online and phone in worship and reflections for as long as there is a need and desire for that. So the link for today's video worship is here:

Worship and reflection for the Eighth Sunday after Trinity

This coming week, Revd Carole will again be leading compline via Zoom on Tuesday at 8pm (ID 999 516 9418, password Twigster3) - if you've not tried it, do give it a go, for some quiet and reflective prayer at the end of the day. In our buildings, we'll have morning worship at Wood End on Wednesday at 9,30am, short Evening Prayer at Kingsbury at 6.15pm on Wednesday and at Baxterley at 4.30pm on Thursday, and next Sunday there will be Holy Communion at Kingsbury at 11am. Do please remember that from next weekend the wearing of face coverings in places of worship is a legal requirement for all who are not exempt; I hope that we are already becoming used to that, and it is already strongly advised that we wear them in church, primarily for the protection of other people.

If you are not able to come to church, but would be able to receive communion safely at home (for example, socially distanced in your garden) please let me know, and I will be happy to make arrangements for either Revd Carole or myself to visit to do so.

With every blessing

John
