Readings for Saint Luke's Day

Isaiah 35. 3-6

Strengthen the weak hands, and make firm the feeble knees. [4]Say to those who are of a fearful heart, "Be strong, do not fear! Here is your God. He will come with vengeance, with terrible recompense. He will come and save you." [5]Then the eyes of the blind shall be opened, and the ears of the deaf unstopped; [6]then the lame shall leap like a deer, and the tongue of the speechless sing for joy. For waters shall break forth in the wilderness, and streams in the desert.

Psalm 147. 1-7

[1]Praise the LORD! How good it is to sing praises to our God; for he is gracious, and a song of praise is fitting.
[2]The LORD builds up Jerusalem; he gathers the outcasts of Israel.
[3]He heals the brokenhearted, and binds up their wounds.
[4]He determines the number of the stars; he gives to all of them their names.
[5]Great is our Lord, and abundant in power; his understanding is beyond measure.
[6]The LORD lifts up the downtrodden; he casts the wicked to the ground.
[7]Sing to the LORD with thanksgiving; make melody to our God on the lyre.

2 Timothy 4. 5-17

As for you, always be sober, endure suffering, do the work of an evangelist, carry out your ministry fully. [6]As for me, I am already being poured out as a libation, and the time of my departure has come. [7]I have fought the good fight, I have finished the race, I have kept the faith. [8]From now on there is reserved for me the crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous judge, will give me on that day, and not only to me but also to all who have longed for his appearing. [9]Do your best to come to me soon, [10]for Demas, in love with this present world, has deserted me and gone to Thessalonica; Crescens has gone to Galatia, Titus to Dalmatia. [11]Only Luke is with me. Get Mark and bring him with you, for he is useful in my ministry. [12]I have sent Tychicus to Ephesus. [13]When you come, bring the cloak that I left with Carpus at Troas, also the books, and above all the parchments. [14]Alexander the coppersmith did me great harm; the Lord will pay him back for his deeds. [15]You also must beware of him, for he strongly opposed our message. [16]At my first defense no one came to my support, but all deserted me. May it not be counted against them! [17]But the Lord stood by me and gave me strength, so that through me the message might be fully proclaimed and all the Gentiles might hear it. So I was rescued from the lion's mouth.

Luke 10. 1-9

After this the Lord appointed seventy others and sent them on ahead of him in pairs to every town and place where he himself intended to go. [2]He said to them, "The harvest is plentiful, but the laborers are few; therefore ask the Lord of the harvest to send out laborers into his harvest. [3]Go on your way. See, I am sending you out like lambs into the midst of wolves. [4]Carry no purse, no bag, no sandals; and greet no one on the road. [5]Whatever house you enter, first say, 'Peace to this house!' [6]And if anyone is there who shares in peace, your peace will rest on that person; but if not, it will return to you. [7]Remain in the same house, eating and drinking whatever they provide, for the laborer deserves to be paid. Do not move about from house to house. [8]Whenever you enter a town and its people welcome you, eat what is set before you; [9]cure the sick who are there, and say to them, 'The kingdom of God has come near to you.'

Oversight Area Songs of Praise - 18th October, 4.30pm at St. Paul's Church, Dosthill
As a return gesture from the other half of our Oversight Area for the Abbey Ruins service in August, we are invited to a Songs of Praise at Dosthill Church on the 18th October in the afternoon. Please do make every effort to attend this reciprocal invitation if you can. Please let me know as I would like to give approx. numbers for cake afterwards.

A Gentle Reminder! We have always followed the advice of the Church of England regarding the sharing of the common cup at Holy Communion. The current guidelines state those who wish, may receive both bread and wine at Holy Communion. However, it is still permissible to receive the bread only if you prefer or if you have reason to minimise the risk of contagion. Dipping the bread in the wine (intinction) is not encouraged in case crumbs enter the wine which could seriously affect someone after you who has a wheat allergy. For the safety of all, please don't ask to intinct the bread. Thank you.
