Kingsbury Fete last Saturday raised a magnificent £1,342.00 for church funds and our heating/chancel roof fund (50% to each), and an update on the 'Just Giving' page which now stands at £3,435.00.
Many thanks to all who helped organise, ran stalls, set up and cleared away, served tea and cake, baked cakes, came and spent their money and did anything else for the smooth running of the Fete. Please also keep plugging the JustGiving page. Kingsbury Church is truly grateful for all the help over last weekend.

Readings for the Ninth Sunday after Trinity

Isaiah 55. 1-5

Ho, everyone who thirsts, come to the waters; and you that have no money, come, buy and eat! Come, buy wine and milk without money and without price. ²Why do you spend your money for that which is not bread, and your labor for that which does not satisfy? Listen carefully to me, and eat what is good, and delight yourselves in rich food. ³Incline your ear, and come to me; listen, so that you may live. I will make with you an everlasting covenant, my steadfast, sure love for David. ⁴See, I made him a witness to the peoples, a leader and commander for the peoples. ⁵See, you shall call nations that you do not know, and nations that do not know you shall run to you, because of the LORD your God, the Holy One of Israel, for he has glorified you.

Matthew 14. 13-21

Now when Jesus heard this, he withdrew from there in a boat to a deserted place by himself. But when the crowds heard it, they followed him on foot from the towns. ¹⁴When he went ashore, he saw a great crowd; and he had compassion for them and cured their sick. ¹⁵When it was evening, the disciples came to him and said, "This is a deserted place, and the hour is now late; send the crowds away so that they may go into the villages and buy food for themselves." ¹⁶Jesus said to them, "They need not go away; you give them something to eat." ¹⁷They replied, "We have nothing here but five loaves and two fish." ¹⁸And he said, "Bring them here to me." ¹⁹Then he ordered the crowds to sit down on the grass. Taking the five loaves and the two fish, he looked up to heaven, and blessed and broke the loaves, and gave them to the disciples, and the disciples gave them to the crowds. ²⁰And all ate and were filled; and they took up what was left over of the broken pieces, twelve baskets full. ²¹And those who ate were about five thousand men, besides women and children.

Psalm 145. 8-9, 15-end

⁸The LORD is gracious and merciful, slow to anger and abounding in steadfast love.
⁹The LORD is good to all, and his compassion is over all that he has made.
¹⁵The eyes of all look to you, and you give them their food in due season.
¹⁶You open your hand, satisfying the desire of every living thing.
¹⁷The LORD is just in all his ways, and kind in all his doings.
¹⁸The LORD is near to all who call on him, to all who call on him in truth.
¹⁹He fulfills the desire of all who fear him; he also hears their cry, and saves them.
²⁰The LORD watches over all who love him, but all the wicked he will destroy.
²¹My mouth will speak the praise of the LORD, and all flesh will bless his holy name forever and ever.

Romans 9. 1-5

I am speaking the truth in Christ—I am not lying; my conscience confirms it by the Holy Spirit— ²I have great sorrow and unceasing anguish in my heart.
³For I could wish that I myself were accursed and cut off from Christ for the sake of my own people, my kindred according to the flesh. ⁴They are Israelites, and to them belong the adoption, the glory, the covenants, the giving of the law, the worship, and the promises; ⁵to them belong the patriarchs, and from them, according to the flesh, comes the Messiah, who is over all, God blessed forever. Amen.
